If the game is incomplete after 1 hour 45 minutes, the current inning will be played out and no new inning will begin. Please keep the games moving along. If after your allotted innings the game is tied, you can play additional innings if time permits to break the tie. If time is running out or you are over the time allotment, the tie will stand.

9.0.9 - 5 warm-up pitches shall be allowed between innings (maximum of 90 seconds.) The umpire shall monitor warm-up pitches and time.

9.0.10 - The following are options for batting roster lineup. This must be decided at the beginning of the game:

Option 1: Teams may elect to bat 9 players

Option 2: Teams may bat ten (10) players, 10th player EH (Extra Hitter)

See rule 9.0.11.

Option 3: Teams may elect to bat their entire roster. This allows teams to switch defensive players in and out as they wish (free defensive substitution). If a player is unable to play due to an injury or illness the vacancy shall be recorded as an out the 1st time, after that, the roster shall collapse to accommodate the missing player. If a player is ejected, the vacancy shall be recorded as an out every time that spot comes up to bat.

9.0.11 - A team may use an EH (Extra Hitter) in the lineup if declared at the start of the game. If a team elects to start the game using an EH, the team must use a 10 player lineup throughout the game. If, due to an injury, there are no more eligible subs on the bench, the opposing manager shall select a player of his choice from the bench to take the injured player's place in the batting order. If, due to an injury, the team is reduced to 9 players, an out shall be recorded only the first time the injured player was scheduled to bat. If, due to an ejection, the team is reduced to 9 players, an out shall be recorded each time the ejected player was scheduled to bat.

9.0.15 - A ball shall be considered fair and in play if it hits any portion of the outfield fence and bounces back in. The yellow line designates the top of the fence only. A home run is any ball that goes over the fence or hits the yellow foul pole.

9.4.5 – Balks shall be called after 1st warning. After the first warning the umpire may elect to visit the mound and explain the balk to the pitcher. This is a meeting between the umpire and the pitcher. If the coach elects to visit the mound it will constitute a coaching visit. If it is the second visit in the inning, or the third cumulative visit, the pitcher must be removed from the mound.

SECTION 10 – Umpires

10.0.1 - The "league president, owner, Oz, ...Greg." shall supply one or more umpires from an umpire league to officiate at each league game. The umpires shall be responsible for the conduct of the game in accordance with these official rules and for maintaining discipline and order on the playing field during the game.

10.0.1.1 – If an umpire has not arrived by game time, a league representative should be notified. The game clock starts at the scheduled game time. The game should get started.

10.0.2 - Each umpire is a representative of the league and of professional baseball, and is authorized and required to enforce all of these rules. Each umpire has authority to order a player, coach, or manager to do or refrain from doing anything which affects the administering of these rules, and to enforce the prescribed penalties.

10.0.3 - Each umpire has authority to rule on any point not specifically covered in these rules.

10.0.4 - Each umpire has authority to disqualify any player, coach, manager or substitute for objecting to decisions or for unsportsmanlike conduct or language, and to eject such disqualified person from the playing field. If an umpire disqualifies a player while a play is in progress, the disqualification shall not take effect until no further action is possible in that play.

10.0.5 - Each umpire has authority at his discretion to eject from the playing field any spectator or other person not authorized to be on the playing field.

10.0.6 – Umpires Decisions

10.0.6.1 – Any umpire's decision which involves judgment, such as, but not limited to, whether a batted ball is fair or foul, whether a pitch is a strike or a ball, or whether a runner is safe or out, is final. No player, manager, coach or substitute shall object to any such judgment decisions.

9.02(a) Comment: Players leaving their position in the field or on base, or managers or coaches leaving the bench or coaches box, to argue on BALLS AND STRIKES will not be permitted. They should be warned if they start for the plate to protest the call. If they continue, they may be ejected from the game.

10.0.6.2 – If there is reasonable doubt that any umpire's decision may be in conflict with the rules, the manager may appeal the decision and ask that a correct ruling be made. Such appeal shall be made only to the umpire who made the protested decision.

10.0.6.3 – If a decision is appealed, the umpire making the decision may ask another umpire for information or a league representative before making a final decision. No umpire shall criticize, seek to reverse or interfere with another umpire's decision unless asked to do so by the umpire making it.

10.0.2.3(c) Comment: The manager or the catcher may request the plate umpire to ask his partner (if there are 2 umpires) for help on a half swing when the plate umpire calls the pitch a ball, but not when the pitch is called a strike. The manager may not complain that the umpire made an improper call, but only that he did not ask his partner for help. Field umpires must be alerted to the request from the plate umpire and quickly respond. Managers may not protest the call of a ball or strike on the pretense they are asking for information about a half swing. Appeals on a half swing may be made only on the call of ball and when asked to appeal, the home plate umpire must refer to a base umpire for his judgment on the half swing. Should the base umpire call the pitch a strike, the strike call shall prevail. Baserunners must be alert to the possibility that the base umpire on appeal from the plate umpire may reverse the call of a ball to the call of a strike, in which event the runner is in jeopardy of being out by the catcher's throw. Also, a catcher must be alert in a base stealing situation if a ball call is reversed to a strike by the base umpire upon appeal from the plate umpire. The ball is in play on appeal on a half swing. On a half swing, if the manager comes out to argue with first or third base umpire and if after being warned he persists in arguing, he may be ejected as he is now arguing over a called ball or strike.

10.0.6.4 – No umpire may be replaced during a game unless he is injured or becomes ill.

10.0.7 – Umpire-in-Chief

10.0.7.1 – If there is only one umpire, he shall have complete jurisdiction in administering the rules. He may take any position on the playing field which will enable him to discharge his duties (usually) behind the catcher, but sometimes behind the pitcher if there are runners).

10.0.7.2 – If there are two or more umpires, one shall be designated umpire-in-chief and the other field umpire.

10.0.8 – Umpire Duties

10.0.8.1 – The umpire-in-chief shall stand behind the catcher. (He usually is called the plate umpire.) His duties shall be to:

- (1) Take full charge of, and be responsible for, the proper conduct of the game;
- (2) Call and count balls and strikes;
- (3) Call and declare fair balls and fouls except those commonly called by field umpires;
- (4) Make all decisions on the batter;
- (5) Make all decisions except those commonly reserved for the field umpires;
- (6) Decide when a game shall be forfeited;
- (7) If a time limit has been set, announce the fact and the time set before the game starts;
- (8) Inform the official scorer of the official batting order, and any changes in the lineups and batting order, on request;
- (9) Announce any special ground rules, at his discretion.

10.0.8.2 – A field umpire may take any position on the playing field he thinks best suited to make impending decisions on the bases. His duties shall be to:

- (1) Make all decisions on the bases except those specifically reserved to the umpire-in-chief;
- (2) Take concurrent jurisdiction with the umpire-in-chief in calling "Time," balks, illegal pitches, or defacement of the ball by any player.
- (3) Aid the umpire-in-chief in every manner in enforcing the rules, and excepting the power to forfeit the game, shall have equal authority with the umpire-in-chief in administering and enforcing the rules and maintaining discipline.

10.0.9 - Reprimands

10.0.9.1 - The umpire shall report to the league representative after the end of a game all violations of rules and other incidents worthy of comment, including the disqualification of any manager, coach or player, and the reasons therefore.

10.0.9.2 - When any manager, coach or player is disqualified for a flagrant offense such as the use of obscene or indecent language, or an assault upon an umpire, manager, coach or player, the umpire shall inform a league representative of all particulars after the end of the game.

10.0.9.3 - After receiving the umpire's report that a manager, coach or player has been disqualified, the league representative shall notify the league president who shall impose such penalty as he deems justified, and shall notify the person penalized and the manager of the team of which the penalized person is a member.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO UMPIRES (FYI)

Umpires, on the field, should not indulge in conversation with players. Keep out of the coaching box and do not socialize with the coach on duty. Keep your uniform in good condition. Be active and alert on the field.

Be courteous. When you enter a ball park your sole duty is to umpire a ball game as the representative of baseball.

Do not allow criticism to keep you from studying out bad situations that may lead to protested games. Carry your rule book. It is better to consult the rules and hold up the game 10 minutes to decide a problem. Keep the game moving. A ball game is often helped by energetic and earnest work of the umpires.

You are the only official representative of baseball on the ball field. It is often a trying position which requires the exercise of much patience and good judgment, but do not forget that the first essential in working out of a bad situation is to keep your own temper and self-control.

You no doubt are going to make mistakes, but never attempt to "even up" after having made one. Make all decisions as you see them.

Keep your eye everlastingly on the ball while it is in play. It is more vital to know just where a fly ball fell, or a thrown ball finished up, than whether or not a runner missed a base. Do not call the plays too quickly, or turn away too fast when a fielder is throwing to complete a double play. Watch out for dropped balls after you have called a player out.

Do not come running with your arm up or down, denoting "out" or "safe." Wait until the play is completed before making any arm motion.

Each umpire team (if there are 2 umpires) should work out a simple set of signals, so the proper umpire can always right a manifestly wrong decision when convinced he has made an error. If you are sure you got the play correctly, do not be stampeded by players' appeals to "ask the other man." If not sure, ask one of your associates. Do not carry this to extremes, be alert and get your own plays. But remember! The first requisite is to get decisions correctly. If in doubt don't hesitate to consult your associate. Umpire dignity is important but never as important as "being right."

A most important rule for umpires is always "BE IN POSITION TO SEE EVERY PLAY." Even though your decision may be 100 percent right, players still question it if they feel you were not in a spot to see the play clearly and definitely. Finally, be courteous, impartial and firm, and so compel respect from all.
